The above correspondence relates to the payment of final remuneration to the Village Officers of the 29 Villages transferred from the Kunigal to the Mandya Taluk. The Survey Superintendent submits with reference to an enquiry made by this Office, that the payment of final re-muneration to the Village Officers of the Kunigal Taluk having been

been Sanctioned in Government Pro: No. 4025-7 of the 31st August 52 1888 with effect from the year 1887-88, the case of the Village Officers of these 29 Villages had to be dealt with separately from that of the Mundya Taluk proper, the settlement of the final remuneration of which is now in hand.

2. Government observe that the payment of final remuneration to the Village Officers of the Municipal Taluk having taken effect from the year 1888-89, the Patels and Shanbhogs of the 29 Villages in question should be paid from the same year. They accordingly Sanction the payment of the
